Cut in the Rice Quota to Kerala and West Bengal

*25. SHRi GURUDAS DAS GUPTA: SHRI N. E. BALARAM:

Will the Minister of FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES be pleased to state:

(a) whether it i_s a fact that the rice quota to Kerala and West Bengal has been cut down from December, 1990, and

(b) if so, the details and the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRi RAO BIRENDER SINGH): (a) and (b) Additional allocation of 10,000 tonnes of rice to Kerala State was made on the request of the State Government for the months of October and November, 1990 raising the allocation to the level of 1.45 lakh tonnes. This allocation has been restored to earlier levels thereafter keeping in view the need to conserve the stocks for the lean months and fresh arrivals of paddy, i_n the market. Rice allotment for West Bengal was increased to 94,000 tonnes by additional allocation for the month of September, 1990 to meet the demand of festival season. Subsequently allocat'on to this State as also to several other States has been reduced for the reasons mentioned above and I in view of the market availability of rice in th_e months immediately after the havesting season.
